

The Great Prayer of Thanksgiving

The Lord be with you.
Now lift up your hearts.

And al - so with you.
We lift them in praise. O let us give thanks to the Lord. It is good and it is right, our joy and our delight to give God praise at all times and in all ways!

Holy and right it is, and our joyful duty to give thanks to you at all times and in all places, O Lord our Creator, almighty and everlasting God! You created heaven with all its hosts and the earth with all its plenty. You have given us life and being, and preserve us by your providence. But you have shown us the fullness of your love in sending into the world your Son, Jesus Christ, the eternal Word, made flesh for us and for our salvation. For the precious gift of this mighty Savior who has reconciled us to you we praise and bless you, O God. With your whole church on earth and with all the company of heaven we worship and adore your glorious name.

Oh, ho - ly are you, Lord the God of pow'r and might; the an - gels veil their sight! Earth is a - flame with the glo - ry of your name!

one: He comes a - gain! Ho - san - na, Lord. A - men.

Most righteous God, we remember in this Supper the perfect sacrifice offered once on the cross by our Lord Jesus Christ for the sin of the whole world. In the joy of his resurrection and in expectation of his coming again, we offer ourselves to you as holy and living sacrifices. Together we proclaim the mystery of the faith:

Your death, O Christ, we pro claim. Your ris - ing cel - e - brate! Your com - ing we a - wait, to make all things new. All glo - ry un - to you.

Send your Holy Spirit upon us, we pray, that the bread which we break and the cup which we bless may be to us the communion of the body and the blood of Christ. Grant that, being joined together in him, we may attain to the unity of the faith and grow up in all things into Christ, our Lord.

And as this grain has been gathered from many fields into one loaf, and these grapes from many hills into one cup, grant, O Lord, that your whole church may soon be gathered from the ends of the earth into your kingdom. Even so, come, Lord Jesus!

Al - le - lu - ia! Lord! A - men!

The Lord's Supper continues with the sharing of communion, and the Prayer of Thanksgiving after communion.
