Words of Welcome

“It is the mission of the Community Reformed Church of Colonie to love the Lord our God with all our hearts, with all our souls and with all of our minds; and to love our neighbors as ourselves.” (Matthew 22:37-40)

We are a community bound together and energized by faith, love, and commitment to Jesus Christ. And even though you may not yet share that faith, love, and commitment, you are most welcome to be with us, to belong here, to experience what we’re about. Then, if you are attracted and persuaded by what you see and hear, we hope you’ll want to set down roots here long-term. And even if you don’t, you’ll always be a friend.

The Community Reformed Church of Colonie welcomes you and thanks you for worshiping with us.

Please join in the worship liturgy by reading aloud what is in bold italics.

For Contemplation

Lord, you have been our dwelling place
in all generations
Before the mountains were brought forth,
or you had formed the earth and the world,
from everlasting to everlasting you are God.

Teach us, Lord, to count our days
that we may gain a wise heart.
Satisfy us in the morning with your steadfast love,
so that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.

Based on Psalm 90

About Ash Wednesday:

“Ash Wednesday is the first day of Lent. By the fourth century the Western church had determined that the Lenten period of fasting and renewal should correspond to Christ’s forty-day fast [in the wilderness] and, by counting forty days back from Easter (excluding Sundays, which remain “feast” days), arrived at the Wednesday seven weeks before Easter... The aim of Ash Wednesday worship is threefold: (1) meditate on our mortality, sinfulness, and need of a savior; (2) to renew our commitment to daily repentance in the Lenten season and in all of life; (3) and, to remember with confidence and gratitude that Christ has conquered death and sin.” - Worship Sourcebook

PRELUDE “Wasteland”

THE COMMUNITY GATHERS

LIGHTING THE CANDLES OF LENT

LENTEN INTROIT “Take, O Take Me As I Am”

This Lent, four symbols will be brought forward during the Lenten Introit. They symbolize the primary ways the living Word of God meets us:

1. The Bible, symbolizing the Word of God who still speaks to us today.
2. A Drape for the Cross, symbolizing the Word of God who became flesh and gave himself in love, showing us “The Way” to live.
3. A Pitcher, symbolizing the Word of God who washes, claims, and gives us a vocation in the waters of baptism.
4. A Plate & Cup, symbolizing the Word of God who feeds and sustains us at his table of reconciliation and fellowship.

May the words of this introit be our honest prayer this Lent.

The musical score consists of two staves of music in 4/4 time, A major (indicated by a key signature of one sharp), and common time (indicated by a key signature of one flat). The top staff is for the treble clef voice, and the bottom staff is for the bass clef voice. The lyrics are written below the notes. The music begins with a forte dynamic, followed by a series of eighth and sixteenth note chords. The lyrics are as follows:

Take, O take me as I am;
sum-mon out what I shall be;
set your seal up-on my heart and live in me.

CALL TO WORSHIP Based on Psalm 51 & Lenten Introit

O Lord, open my lips,
and my mouth shall proclaim your praise.

You do not delight in sacrifice, or I would bring it;
you do not take pleasure in burnt offerings.

The sacrifices of God are a broken a broken spirit;
a broken and contrite heart.

So Lord, as we enter this wilderness season of Lent,
we come to you as we are: dust of the earth, in need of you.

Take us as we are,
and summon out all that we may be!

Let us worship Christ who only requires that we know our need for him!

* OPENING SONG “Amazing Grace (My Chains Are Gone)”

A - maz - ing grace, how sweet the sound, that saved a wretch like me.

I once was lost but now I'm found, was blind but now I see.

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear, and grace my fears relieved.
(The) Lord has promised good to me, His word my hope secures.

How pre cious did that grace ap pear the hour I first be lieved.
He will my shield and por tion be as long as life en dures.

Refrain:

My chains are gone, I've been set free. My God, my Sav - ior has ran - somed me. And like a flood, His mer - cy rains un-end - ing

love, a - maz - ing grace. The grace.

2

The earth shall soon dis-solve like snow, the sun for-bear to shine.

But God, who called me here be - low will be for ev - er mine, will be for ev - er mine.

Dust and Ashes: A Service of Lessons and Song

FIRST LESSON A reading based on Genesis 2:4-7; 3:19

TAIZÉ MEDITATION “Shepherd Me, O God” (3 times)

Shepherd me, O God, beyond my wants, beyond my fears, from death into life.

SECOND LESSON & CALL TO CONFESION A reading based on Job 42:5-6

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

God of mystery and mercy, we come to you like Job, without defenses, sitting in the dust and ashes of our lives.

We confess how easily we equate our certainty with trust, our strength with faith, our plans with hope. We even become irritated with our human limitations, as if we could be anything but human. Because we act in these ways, we end up trying to control what we can't, and fruitlessly demanding answers to all that is unanswerable. Consequently, we are exhausted.

So tonight, as we are marked with ashes, remind us that this mark is not a sign of forsakenness, but a reminder of the truth of our lives and God's promises to us: that we are but dust and ashes, and your loving presence will never abandon us.

This Lent, teach us to sit honestly in your presence, so we might, as Job did, be honest about our confusion and exhaustion, and trust that you are with us, even in the midst of hardship. Amen.

TAIZÉ MEDITATION “In God Alone” (3 times)

In God alone my soul can find rest and peace; in God my peace and joy!
Only in God my soul can find its rest; find its rest and peace.

ASSURANCE OF PRESENCE

ANTHEM “Refiner’s Fire”

THIRD LESSON Based on Isaiah 58:5-12

HOMILY I’ve sinned. I’m mortal. I have a purpose.

Sure - ly, you a - lone re - fine us. You give us grace for lives made new, Sure - ly, you a - lone re-deem us. You fill our dust with ho - ly breath.

6/4 time, treble clef, key signature of B-flat major (two flats). Chords: D, G, C, G, D^(sus4), D. to refrain. The lyrics are: Brac - ing, till we walk up-right - ly, you bol - ster our hope once a - gain. forg - ing, through your fire and ra - diance, a sac - ri - fice wor - thy for you. Burst - ing from the grave in glo - ry, you rise from the ash - es of death!

MEDITATION & IMPOSITION OF ASHES

Please write on your paper what you'd like to give up or take on this Lent.

Go forward and nail it to the cross. Someone will help you.

Then receive ashes and return to your seat.

 CHARGE & BENEDICTION

 THE IRISH BLESSING

*May the road rise to meet you,
May the wind be ever at your back,
May the sun shine warm upon your face,
And the rains fall soft upon your fields.
And until we meet again, and until we meet again,
May the God who loves us all
Hold you in the palm of His hand.
Amen.*

The Community Reformed Church of Colonie is a Room for All (RfA) congregation. Room for All congregations affirm and welcome lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, questioning individuals, and their families into our lives and the full life of the church. As an RfA congregation, we are committed to working with Reformed Church in America churches nationwide to reform denominational policies to allow full inclusion and to celebrate the diversity of all who worship our Lord. Christ's door remains open here and there is "room for all."

A wheelchair is located in the entranceway of the church.

A sign-up sheet for CD copies of this morning's service is located on the back table.

Large print bulletins are available on request.

Our sanctuary is now equipped with a hearing assistance system. Please ask the elder or deacon for a receiver.
